

Bronco's story by Hannah Azzopardi

Bronco the Koolie was in a pound in NSW when we saw him on the internet with a PTS (put to sleep) date set for the following day. The PTS was for many reasons – being an adult dog, pounds overflowing, (especially with working breeds), and having some food aggression issues. We contacted the local rescue agency who immediately pulled Bronco from the pound and put him on the plane from Canberra to Sydney to Townsville.

Bronco has been part of our family for four years now and has grown into a gentle, happy and loyal man who deserved a good life. We made sure he has one!
