

Bubba's story by Morgan Brown

This little bundle of joy – born from his mother a border collie named Bella and an Alsatian of unknown origin – was given to me on my 30th birthday in 2010 by friends who lived in Bibbohra near Mareeba.

He's loyalty and affection from the day that he came into my life are still there to this day. With ropes, Frisbees and toys he enjoy all the excitement that life brings as being a part of my family.

He still considers himself a lap dog even though he now weighs over 25kgs but he is still my little boy and my big teddy bear.
