

Lola's story by Paloma Ramos

“Hi! I'm Lola, the Cavalier King Charles Spaniel and I'm 4. I live at Canopy Art Centre and love it when we have exhibitions 'cause lots of people come and I get lots of pats and snacks from the food table like salami and other delights.

I was born in Goldsborough Valley and when I was a puppy I came to live with my new family and Bosy, my new older brother, who was a ginger. I remember chewing on his ear a lot as my new teeth grew – he always had dreadlocks on his right ear! Sadly, my beloved Bosy decided to cross the busy road one day and we lost him. I still miss him terribly, but remember all the great fun we had chasing each other around the gallery!

I'm a happy girl who just LOVES going for walks, often on the Esplanade, sometimes at different beaches and my all-time favourite Goomboora Park. I have many doggie friends around the neighbourhood, like Fenton and Lexie who live in my street.

They tell me I snore loudly in the gallery during the day, and at night. That's why dad has banned me from the bedroom – he says he can't sleep! Luckily, mum sneaks me in when he goes away!”
